

A Dream Come True

- How often do you dream?
- What kind of dreams do you often see?
- Have any of your dreams ever come true?

I always dreamt of flying. I am a brave child by nature. I always imagined to achieve my success in the skies. I live in a mountainous area which is an ideal tourist spot. Flying was my passion. Once I sighted an object that looked like a parachute. So I reached the spot by my bike. It was a balloon. One of my friends was standing there. He called me to help him. I held one of the ropes attached to the balloon. I was supposed to hold onto the rope until the balloon was filled with air and ready to fly.

Lesson-06

A Dream Come true

(*) QUESTION ANSWER

(1) what did the boy do when he saw the landing parachute?

Ans:- The boy rode his bike to the spot when he saw the landing parachute.

(2) what did his friend ask him to do?

Ans: His friend asked to help him.

(3) why couldn't he let the rope go?

Ans: He could not do so because he had wrapped the nylon line around four fingers on his left hand.

(4) How did he feel when he rose up from the ground?

Ans: Everything on the ground appeared smaller and smaller as he rose up from the ground. There he felt fear.

(5) Did the pilot know about the boy's presence?

Ans: NO, the pilot did not know about the boy's presence.

(6) What did the pilot do when he saw the boy?

Ans: when the pilot saw the boy he started to descend very fast and got down in two minutes.

(7) How high did the balloon go?

Ans:- The ballon went to 3000 feet.

(8) why was the boy not badly injured?

Ans:- The boy was not badly injured because he was dropped off into a pine tree and the tree broke his fall.

(9) Do you think this kind of adventure should be tried? why not?

Ans:- No, I do not think that this kind of adventure should be tried because it may cause serious injuries and even Death.

personal Narrative

Q: Think about an exciting dream that you have had. write a personal narrative about it.

Ans: once, I had a dream. it was a very strange dream. I dreamt that it was moonlight all around at night. Suddenly, I got wings and began to fly out of my window. I flew over the houses nearby and observed a silver blanket of cold ~~con~~ moonlight. Silence prevailed everywhere. I flew over the river and saw many fish playing in water. The silver moonlight was creating a wonderful and mysterious scene in the cold night. I was too excited to see all this. But suddenly

I woke up. It was a lovely dream. I still remember this dream.

9. Do you
not?
Choose the correct option.

1. The sight of the parachute brought the author to that spot as
 - (a) he wanted to spend his time there
 - (b) flying was his passion
 - (c) he came to see his friend
2. When he was holding the rope, he was
 - (a) helping the pilot
 - (b) planning to fly
 - (c) playing with the rope
3. When the balloon rose up, the author
 - (a) got inside the balloon
 - (b) let the balloon go up
 - (c) rose up with the balloon
4. When the balloon was rising up
 - (a) the author was laughing
 - (b) shouting for help
 - (c) was enjoying the flight
5. When the captain heard the voice, he
 - (a) stayed in the air
 - (b) started getting down
 - (c) jumped out of the balloon

6. When the rope tore off the balloon, the author

- (a) fell on the roof of a building
- (b) fell in a pond of water
- (c) fell into a pine tree

7. When the author fell down

- (a) he was only scratched
- (b) his leg was broken
- (c) he was badly hurt

Learn about words

Vocabulary

A. Word meaning:

Match the word in column A with its meaning in column B.

A	B
parachute	to pull something with a sudden strong movement
stunts	seeing something or someone
passion	a canopy to slow down the fall from aircrafts
sighted	tricks in the air
burners	overpowering emotions of love , joy, hatred, etc.
jerked	rings or plates on ovens that give heat or a flame

While reading the story, do you get inspired by the hard working nature and determination of Quaid-e-Azam (رحمۃ اللہ علیہ).

Fill in the blanks with appropriate answers.

- (i) Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah (رحمۃ اللہ علیہ) was the _____ of Pakistan.
 (a) founder (b) professor (c) scientist
- (ii) He completed his early education from _____.
 (a) Lincoln's Inn (b) Sindh Madrasa-tul-Islam
 (c) Govt. High School
- (iii) He came into politics in _____.
 (a) 1905 (b) 1907 (c) 1906
- (iv) He died on 11th September _____.
 (a) 1948 (b) 1946 (c) 1947
- (v) _____ advised him not to study too much.
 (a) His uncle (b) His father (c) His aunty

Learn about words

Vocabulary

A. Word meaning:

Match the word in column A with its meaning in column B.

A	B
betterment	the act of coming to a decision or of fixing or settling a purpose
misunderstanding	producing an effect, as a cause; causative.
determination	freedom from the control, influence
efficient	a disagreement or quarrel
independence	the act or process of bettering; improvement.

Word study

Phonics

Beginning Trigraph

When a trigraph, a group of three letters generating one sound, comes in the beginning of a word called Beginning Trigraph.

Examples: scrap, schedule, shrink, school, shred

Complete the words: Scrap, Schedule, Shrink, School, Shred

Ending Trigraph

When trigraph comes in the end of a word called Ending Trigraph.

Examples: watch, match, sketch, badge, judge

Complete the words: watch, mach, skech, badge, judge

A subject pronoun is a pronoun that is used as the subject of a sentence. He, I, she, they, we and you are subject pronouns.

Example: He came to me.
I helped him.

Object pronoun

An object pronoun is a pronoun that is used in place of a noun that receives the action of the verb her, him, it, me, them, us and you are object pronouns.

Example: Aisha called me.
I answered her.

A. Write SP if the underlined pronoun is a subject pronoun write OP for the object pronoun.

1. She made dinner for the whole family. Sp
2. Sammy played tennis with me. Op
3. My friend went to the movie with him. Op
4. She went to the store last night. Sp
5. The cashier gave the money to her. Op
6. They enjoyed playing on the playground. Sp
7. Have you seen my ball? Sp
8. We played with children. Sp
9. She gave me some chocolates. Op
10. Maria tossed the ball to them. Op