Ans:- when Jan was selected as a hockey player, his teacher insisted to meet with his father on the match day. But Jan
did not want to
come with his father.
Because his father was a villager. Jan said to his teacher that his father did not know anything about hockey.
His teacher replied that

6- your father would want to know about our national game. Fathers should also enjoy the game. The teacher
wanted to meet both
of them on Friday.
Moreover, he told Jan
that children would bring eatables with them. Jan went to home slowly. He neglected those days
when he came here
with his family from
a nearby village.
