

unit: 2

The Strange Kettle

QUESTION ANSWER

1- How did the woodcutter feel when he was coming back from work?

Ans: The woodcutter was tired, but proud when he was coming back from work.

2- Where was the Kettle lying?

Ans: The kettle was lying behind a big tree stump.

3- Did he know that the Kettle had magic powers?

Ans: No, He did not know that kettle had magic powers.

4- Why did they put their meal into the Kettle?

Ans: They put their meal into the kettle to make it double.

5- what was their first desire after becoming rich?

Ans: they wanted to build a big house and a fine garden after becoming rich.

6- why did the two women toss the woodcutter into the kettle?

Ans:- The two women tossed the woodcutter into the kettle because they wanted to see if the kettle could double him.

7- Do you think the woodcutter was a greedy person?

Ans:- NO, I think the woodcutter was not a greedy person.

8- why did the woodcutter put the kettle back into its place in the Forest?

Ans: The woodcutter put the kettle back into its place in the Forest because he realized the kettle had made him greedy.

Word Meaning

Match the column

A

- Drop
- amazed
- Supper
- Brass
- Meal

B

- Shiny yellow metal
- Food eaten at one time
- make somebody surprised
- Fall by accident
- a light meal eaten in the evening

(10) Fill in the Blank

1. The poor man was working hard to earn his meal.

2. The child was amazed

- to find a new toy cars
3. The Student carried a heavy bag on his shoulders.
 4. I usually miss my Supper in the evenings
 5. They accidentally fell in the middle of the road.

- Imperative and Exclamatory Sentences

1. what a wonderful kettle it is ! Exclamatory
2. He looked surprised ! Exclamatory
3. Look into the kettle. Imperative
4. put the meal into the kettle. Imperative
5. The brass kettle had unusual powers ! Exclamatory

writing about strange
Place

Q: Have you visited a forest on any historical place?

Ans: It was last year when I visited the National park with my class-fellows.
it was home of many endangered species
such as Asian lions and pandas. There was a lake and there were rare tortoises
and crocodiles in it.
there was a herd of buffaloes drinking water at the bank
of the lake. we were very close to nature.
we heard the roar
of a lion. we enjoyed the visit

and felt happiness
we returned before
evening.