Letter to mother ask her about her health.

Examination Hall,
City A. B. C.
May 11th, 2020.

My Dear Mother,

Assalam. o. Alaikum!

I am writing this letter to know about your health. Father told me that you were not well from last two days. Have you visited doctor? How are you feeling now? I am really worried about you. Mother! I want to be with you at this moment. But due to exams I can not visit home. You must take care of your self and follow the doctor's advise. InshAllah you will be fit and fine within few days.

Pay my regards to all at home

Story: Don't be fool by flattery.

(A Foolish Crow / Fox and a Crow)

One fine morning, a fat and foolish crow sat on a branch of tree, looking for something to eat. Suddenly he found a big fried piece of meat. He was very happy and flew to the forest to enjoy it. He started to eat it on a branch of tree. By chance, a hungry fox was sitting nearby. He smelled the meat and wanted to eat it. Hence, he weaved a plan to get that piece of meat. He started to speak, Dear Mr. Crow. Good morning. How do you do my dear friend. I am very happy to see you. Crow thought his piece of meat will drop down from his beak. So he kept silence. But fox spoke again. You have a wonderful voice when you sing. I really like your Songs. Please sing a song for me. I know you will not disappoint me, as an old friend.

Please Mr. Crow!

The crow was very foolish. He forgot his food. He opened his beak and began to crow. The piece of meat fell down. Waiting fox picked it up immediately.

Moral:

Do not be fool by flattery.

My Favourite Subject (essay).

In school I study various subjects but I like English Language. It is my favourite subject for many reasons. I am fond of reading stories and fictions. I come to know about realities of life, imagination and daily usage of a language.

English is an important language as all informative material in books or on internet is available in this language. Hence, to master it means to open the door for higher studies.

It is an international way of interaction, business, banking, I-T medicinal, science etc.

One can express views internationally only in English. To master a language in fact tells how to know about human behaviours and selection of words tell us the state of mind of a person with his priorities.

Though it is the age of science and technology. But the research and reading materials of science is also dependent on English language so that it may be accessed by a large population to learn and understand. Hence, learning any language is a milestone in exploration that must be achieved.

Quaid-e-Azam (essay)

Quaid-e-Azam is the greatest leader of Muslim history. He devoted his life for the cause of freedom of Indian Muslims from the slavery of British rulers and Hindus.

He was very intelligent and far seeing thinker. Therefore he knew the Hindu and English mentality deeply. So he never took a step behind to withdraw. Sir Syed

Ahmed Khan presented the two nation theory which was given due importance in Allama Iqbal's poetry and Quaid-e-Azam's promotion of Muslim freedom.

He told them that they were separate nation, their culture, religion and way of life is all different.

They are a part of Universal Muslim Community and a part of their unity. He impressed Muslims with his sincere efforts and hardwork. He was a man of determination. In spite of his falling health he worked hard for the nation. Allah Almighty helped him to win Pakistan.

He wanted to see Pakistan as a "Fort of Islam". It is also acclaimed that Pakistan is the divine secret. Its protection is basically the protection of Muslim Umma because Quaid's proud Pakistan is the sole Atomic power of Muslim world. It is the gift of God.

"May Allah <sup>always</sup> keep Pakistan protected."

"May Allah grant our beloved Quaid with the highest rank in Jannah."
