Journey By Train

Last Sunday, we decided to visit the Lal Sohanra National Park. We decided to go there by train. We were a party of ten boys. We went to the platform and bought tickets. Soon the train steamed in. We boarded it. We got seats near the windows. A few of us started chatting. Others began to play cards. The train was running speedily. It seemed as if trees were running back. Little children looked at the running train. The weather became pleasant. In the meantime, we reached Lal Sohanra. So, we alighted from the train to ride a tonga. It was a memorable journey.
